MERIVA

The diagram illustrates the installation of a rear window PDC sensor on a Meriva. It includes a side view of the car with an arrow pointing to the sensor location, a top-down view of the sensor being inserted into the rear window, and two circular insets showing the sensor being pushed into the window and the cable being connected to the wiring harness. A warning 'PDC' with a large 'X' is shown, indicating that the sensor is not to be installed in the PDC area.
